

PROJECT CRATERS

Creating Responsive Action
Through Empowering
Resources and Strategies

MENTAL HEALTH TRAINING
DEVELOPED FOR TEENS
BY TEENS

IOWA

<http://research.uiowa.edu/hso>

Researchers at the University of Iowa are recruiting students in grades 6th through 12th to participate in a 4-module,
mental health training.

WHAT TO EXPECT

1. Parent or guardian completes an online survey to grant permission, if ages 13-17.
OR
If you are 18 or 19, you complete an online survey consenting to participate in the project.
2. 6-12th grade student completes online survey collecting preliminary information and you are contacted for scheduling.
3. Student participates in an in-person, CRATERS training at UI College of Public Health (dates listed: craters.lab.uiowa.edu/research)
4. Student completes 2 follow-up surveys, immediately after workshop and 30 days later.

REQUIREMENTS

- Enrolled in grades 6th through 12th in Iowa City or surrounding areas
- Consent from Parental or legal guardian
- Student assent (willingness)
- Transportation to and from site

TIME COMMITMENT

- Online surveys: 15-20 minutes each.
CRATERS training: 1, 8-hour day (with breaks, lunch, & refreshments)

LOCATION

- 📍 University of Iowa College of Public Health and Online

Scan the QR Code below to enroll:

Questions, please contact:
Dr. Ebonee Johnson
ebonee-johnson@uiowa.edu

IRB #: 202409338